CCD - Creditworthiness Process.

The Consumer Credit Directive ('CCD') regulations became effective in the UK on 1st February 2011 and in Ireland on 11 June 2010. To comply with these regulations we introduced a new process whereby if the loan is regulated, the broker must first ask the client a basic question to assess whether they can afford the loan.

Definition of a CCD regulated loan

Personal Lines

For purposes of CCD, we treat all bordereaux loans as within the remit of CCD, although we know some are for business use rather than personal.

Commercial Lines

We consider regulated agreements to be those where the agreement is for business purposes and where the borrower is an Individual, Sole Trader or Partnership with 3 or less partners, for loans up to £25,000 (€25,000) only.

Assessing Affordability

We do not carry out client credit checks other than for high risk or high value cases. However, to meet the requirement to assess affordability, on certain loans we will ask you to ascertain the client's ability to meet loan repayments at point of sale. We explain below how to identify regulated loans and what to do.

If you are concerned about your liability in asking affordability assessment questions on behalf of CPF, our legal advice confirms that there is nothing in the directive to prevent a broker undertaking the affordability assessment on behalf of CPF, although ultimately it is the responsibility of CPF as the credit provider to comply with the obligation.

CPF work on a principle of self-approval and this policy was chosen simply to make our premium finance facility as easy to manage as possible for our brokers whilst complying fully with our obligations under the directive. We fully accept our obligations under CCD and are monitoring this very carefully as the directive evolves.

For New Business loans (to CPF)

Assessing affordability applies to all loans that are regulated (see above) and have a loan value above £3,000 (€3,000). Follow the process flow below to see if the loan is regulated, and then ask the question indicated to determine if the client can afford the loan. A copy of the client's response must be kept by the broker, but this can be by any means e.g. recorded call, note on client file, e-mail etc.

If the loan is CCD regulated and the client indicates they cannot afford the loan, premium finance should not be offered and payment should be taken by another method e.g. credit or debit card payment.

CCD - Creditworthiness Process.

Once you are happy that the client meets the creditworthiness requirement, the loan can be submitted without any further checks.

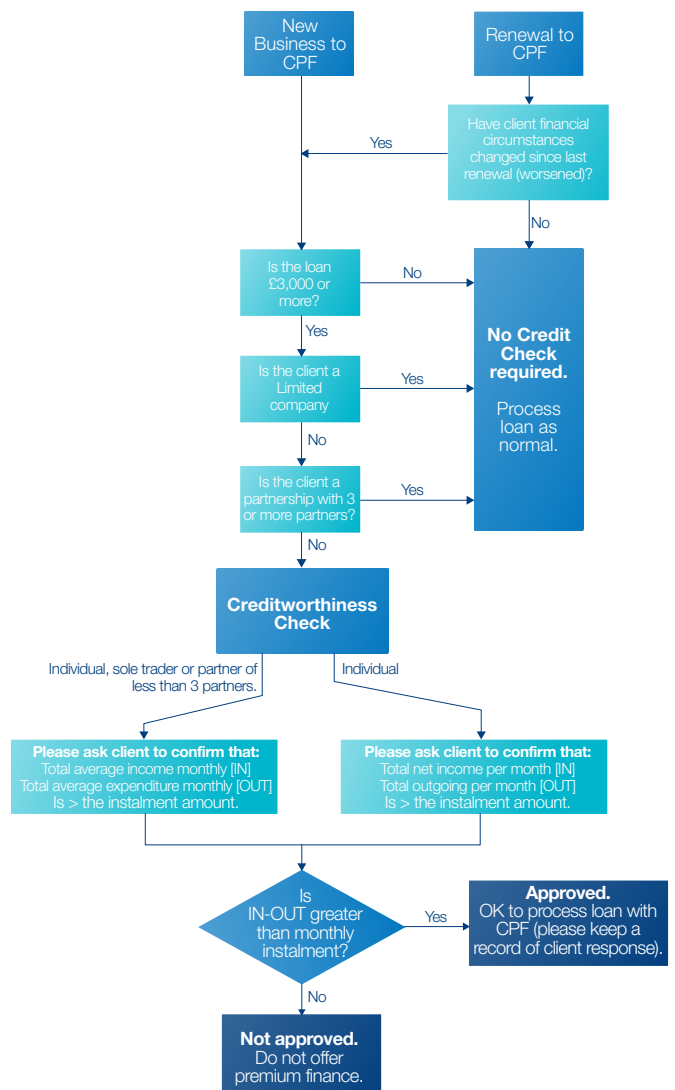

For Renewals loans (to CPF)

Assessing affordability applies to all loans above £3,000 (€3,000), but provided the client's financial circumstances have not worsened since last renewal you can process the loan as normal. To determine this, you must ask the question 'Have client financial circumstances changed since last renewal?' before offering premium finance. A copy of the client's response must be kept by the broker, but this can be by any means e.g. recorded call, note on client file, e-mail etc.

If the loan is CCD regulated and financial circumstances have worsened, premium finance should not be offered and payment should be taken by another method e.g. credit or debit card payment.

Once you are happy that the client meets the creditworthiness requirement, the loan can be submitted without any further checks

The workflow below states the process to be followed and the questions to be asked at point of sale. Your Account Manager will be happy to walk through the Creditworthiness Process with you on request.

CCD - Creditworthiness Process.

Adequate Explanations and Pre-Contract Information

Irrespective of loan value, the borrower must be provided with an adequate explanation of the proposed credit agreement.

For CPF, this means an obligation to provide additional pre-contract information to the client. The content of this pre-contract information is prescribed and has already been introduced in our client Welcome Pack in the form of a Standard European Consumer Credit Information (SECCI) sheets and a Q&A sheet which explains the features of the credit agreement.

For brokers, this requirement means that the particular features of the agreement, including but not limited to, the cost and the consequences of failure to make payments must be explained to all clients.

Telesign product

If you operate a Telesign product with CPF (see the 'Telesign' section of this pack) this information must be conveyed to the client at point-of-sale using a Telesign script. The current version of this script should have been provided to you during the agency setup process (see 'Setting up a new agency. '), but you can view a recent version in the 'Telesign Script' section of this pack or just ask your Account Manager to provide the latest version.

Non-Telesign product

For non-Telesign products (e.g. Face to Face sale, Online 'Quote & Buy' sale or other forms of electronically transacted business), the Adequate Explanation requirement can be met by incorporating the Non-Telesign Adequate Explanation script into the sale process. The current version of this script should have been provided to you during the agency setup process (see 'Setting up a new agency. ') or just ask your Account Manager to provide the latest version.

Early Settlement

Clients are already entitled to settle their Credit Agreement early at any time, but under CCD this is extended to a right to make partial early settlements at any time, and without penalty. Please note that clients whose account is in arrears must settle their arrears before requesting early settlement. Please ask your Account Manager to provide training on how to process full or partial early settlements.

From 1st February 2011, CPF will no longer charge an administration / cancellation fee for early settlement. Loans that cancel due to default will still attract a cancellation fee (if this fee is applicable to your agency).

CCD - Creditworthiness Process.

Consumer Credit Licensing

CPF have a policy of requiring our brokers to be licensed as credit brokers to offer a premium finance facility. You must hold a current CCL licence, or if exempted, provide evidence of your exemption. Your Account Manager will have asked you for this information before setting up your agency. In the future, we will contact you separately in this regard if any remedial action is required.

It is very important that the Creditworthiness Process is followed and that Adequate Explanation information is provided at point-of-sale where required. Please note that as CPF are liable for the correct application of the CCD regulations, CPF may withdraw your premium finance facility if the broker elements are not being followed.

If you have any questions on our CCD policies or processes, please contact your Account Manager.

Advertising and Promotional advice

When publicly promoting premium finance as a credit facility, you may have to include some standard information in your promotional materials. We understand that if just making a passing reference to a credit facility being available within a broader advertisement / leaflet etc, this requirement would not apply. We have not provided full guidelines here but your Account Manager can provide these on request.

Summary

If a client has any queries in relation to their rights under CCD, they should firstly review their Welcome Pack which contains all of the required information. Clients can request a copy of their Welcome Pack from CPF if they have misplaced the original.

The key features of our Recourse product are:

- Net-rated facility for personal lines and small commercial lines.
- Override can be added to the net rate agreed with you.
- Payment is made to you monthly via a bordereau account.

P1 1

General guidelines.

The facility is designed to suit your clients' needs. Our only requirements are that:

- Borrowers must be over 18 years of age (this is a legal requirement).
- Policies funded must be standard general insurance facilities and must run for at least 12 months from inception or renewal. The facility is not designed for life policies, short-term travel policies, exotic types of insurance or any other insurance that falls under the description of 'long-term business'.
- The policies should be cancellable and provide the expectation of a refund in the event of cancellation (subject to claims and other caveats).

What you will receive from us

We will send you:

- Notice of any new i-prompt features or product changes as they happen via i-news.
- Regular newsletters.
- Relevant updates to this folder from time to time.
- Regular e-mail information you of our products and services.

P12

Personal lines product profile.

Your Account Manager will discuss the various loan options with you and we will amend your i-prompt profile accordingly.

Typically you might choose 2 loan options, although more are available.

The product profiles are:

A deposit followed by equal instalments – for example, a 20% deposit followed by nine equal instalments or ten equal instalments.

Equal instalments – for example, six equal instalments or ten equal instalments, with no deposit.

Payment of deposits – we can accept deposits from your clients by credit or debit card through i-prompt (there will be no merchant fee for this), or by direct debit, which will be taken from the client's bank account as soon as possible (usually within seven working days).

Alternatively, you can receive the deposit, in which case you should retain the payment.

Interest free or subsidised loans

You can offer rates below the net rate we require if you wish. If you do, the amount of the subsidy will be deducted from the bordereau account.

Minimum charges

For smaller loans, a minimum charge applies. Once you have agreed the level with your Account Manager, i-prompt will automatically let you know when a minimum charge becomes applicable.

P13

Mid-term adjustments & Additional policies.

i-prompt recognises an adjustment as an increase in the annual premium relating to an existing policy financed by us. We will finance mid-term adjustments provided there are three or more instalments remaining.

Simply log on to i-prompt and select the client to whom the mid-term adjustment applies. Choose the relevant policy and add the adjustment. The adjustment will be processed and the instalment amounts amended to spread the value of the adjustment over the remaining term of the loan.

Additional interest will take account of the period of the loan remaining and will be charged over that period. We will confirm receipt of an adjustment to your client's account by sending out a revised payment schedule, to your client.

You can also view receipt of the adjustment on your online reports. The adjustment will be settled via the next appropriate monthly bordereau payment.

No paperwork or client signature is needed.

i-prompt recognises an additional policy as a new insurance policy requested by an existing client.

i-prompt lets you create additional policies online by selecting an existing loan and creating a new (additional) advance without the need for a new client signature. This means you can easily cross-sell household policies to your motor clients, for example.

Simply log on to i-prompt and select the client to whom the new policy applies. Choose the 'new loan' option and enter the required details. Your client's repayments will be scheduled according to the loan profile you select.

Payments for all policies funded are collected according to the original agreement using a single direct debit each month.

We will confirm receipt of the new loan with your client and send out a new payment schedule. You will also receive confirmation of the new loan on your daily online summary and the next month's bordereau account will be credited accordingly.

No paperwork or client signature is needed.

P14

Renewal process.

i-prompt lets you view all forthcoming renewals and process them online without the need for client signatures. It will provide an on-screen report for all clients that are due for renewal. An i-mail notification can be set up so you receive all forthcoming client information three weeks before renewal.

If you've secured the business for the following period, whether with the same insurer or otherwise, simply log on to i-prompt, select the relevant client and choose the 'rollover' option.

The renewal will be processed and your client's payments scheduled over the agreed term. Payments for all policies funded are collected according to the original agreement using a single direct debit each month.

We will confirm renewal with your client and send out a new payment schedule. You will also receive confirmation of the renewal on your daily online summary and the next month's bordereau payment will be credited accordingly. No paperwork or client signature is needed.

P15

Collections and deposits.

Collecting instalments and deposits

We will collect instalments according to the options you have selected on the Running Account Credit Agreement (RACA) or Running Account Credit Request (RACR) form. In all cases, we will collect deposits immediately.

If a deposit is being collected by direct debit, this will happen at the earliest opportunity.

The options for collection are:

Deposit taken, client preferred payment date (PPD) selected

After the deposit, we will collect the first instalment on the first available PPD, and subsequent direct debits monthly thereafter.

Deposit taken, no client PPD selected

After the deposit, we will collect the first instalment one month after the renewal date or inception of the policy, and subsequent direct debits monthly thereafter.

No deposit taken, client PPD selected

We will collect the first instalment on the first available PPD, and subsequent direct debits monthly thereafter.

No deposit taken, no client PPD selected

We will collect the first instalment on the renewal date or inception of the policy, and subsequent direct debits monthly thereafter.

There are a few additional guidelines to consider:

If the first collection date falls within the first seven working days after we have processed the deal, then we will not collect on that date but on the next available collection day.

If the first collection date is more than 35 calendar days after the inception or renewal date of the policy, then we will collect seven working days after we have processed the loan, according to BACS rules. In this case, the remaining instalments will be collected on the specified date each month.

In all cases, should any payment be overdue as a result of late submission of the loan, we will collect all overdue instalments seven days from the date we have processed the loan in order to bring the account up to date.

P16

Payments and overrider payments.

Payments

When you receive payments from us

All transactions during a calendar month will be posted to your bordereau account.

The net balance of your bordereau account is paid into your client account by electronic transfer on an agreed date each month. This is usually the 15th calendar day of the following month, unless agreed otherwise.

The monthly payment will be the net value of new business, renewals, mid-term adjustments and cancellations.

You can view your bordereau account at any time using i-prompt.

Statements will be sent to you about five working days before each payment, to help you reconcile payments.

All accounts received electronically will be credited to your bordereau account and will be paid, provided we receive the relevant paperwork on your agreed payment date.

Overrider payments

We provide daily updates on i-prompt outlining forthcoming bordereau account and overrider payments that are due, so you can reconcile your account. Any overrider will be paid monthly in line with your bordereau account.

You will receive overrider payments by electronic transfer directly into your designated account.

Please note: we provide daily updates outlining forthcoming bordereau account and overrider payments that are due.

What your client receives from us

Once we've accepted a new loan, we'll send your client a welcome letter along with any other paperwork required by the Consumer Credit Act 1974 and Distance Marketing Directive.

P17

Cancellations.

How we handle cancelled loans

At Close Premium Finance, we're committed to helping you improve your client relationships – and so we'll always encourage your client to communicate directly with you. However, under the terms of the Consumer Credit Act 1974, your client has the right to cancel their loan application directly with us.

Cancellation within the first 10 days

To cancel a loan, your client should complete a cancellation notice (sent with the welcome letter) and return it to us. We will then cancel the agreement and send a letter confirming this to you. No fees or interest will be charged for cancellation in these circumstances.

Cancellation after the first 10 days

Once we've received an instruction to cancel a loan, we'll close the relevant account, after making an adjustment to the interest charged. The next bordereau payment will be debited accordingly.

The cancellation takes place immediately unless we're in the process of collecting a direct debit, in which case we'll cancel the account after the direct debit has cleared. We'll send you confirmation that the relevant account has been closed.

If your client has finance on other policies, we'll send them a revised payment schedule. This will confirm the revised repayments now due in respect of these outstanding amounts.

Please note: it's very important your client does not cancel their direct debit instruction. We might have to charge them an administration fee if they do.

What happens if your client defaults on payment?

Default because of a lack of funds

When we're notified of a default, we'll write to let your client know that the instalment and a default fee will be re-applied in fourteen working days. If this second attempt to collect an instalment fails, we'll send a Notice of Default to your client giving them a further seven working days to rectify the account.

During this time, the arrears can be paid by credit or debit card, to bring the account up to date. Your client should contact us directly by telephone on 0870 241 3418 (UK), 1890 928 281 (Ireland), to arrange this.

If the arrears are not cleared during this period, your client will receive a Notice of Termination and their agreement with us will be cancelled. The outstanding balance, excluding any default fees, will be debited from your next bordereau account payment. We will keep you fully informed throughout this process.

P18

Defaults.

Default for any other reason

We'll send a Notice of Default to your client giving them fourteen working days to rectify the account.

During this time, the arrears can be paid by credit or debit card, to bring the account up to date. Your client should contact us directly by telephone on 0870 241 3418 (UK), 1890 928 281 (Ireland), to arrange this.

If no funds are received during this period, your client will receive a Notice of Termination and their agreement with us will be cancelled. The outstanding balance, excluding any default fees, will be debited from your next bordereau account payment.

Please note that if the initial deposit was paid by credit or debit card, we may attempt to secure payment by the same route.

What to tell your client

If your client contacts you about the default, tell them that we will be making a further attempt to claim the amount from their bank account and we won't cancel the loan or ask for cancellation of the policy if the default is rectified. Your client should make sure there are sufficient funds in their bank account to clear the amount.

If your client contacts you after they've received a Notice of Default from us, ask them to call us on 0870 241 3418 (UK), 1890 928 281 (Ireland), to arrange to pay the arrears by credit or debit card.

What to do on termination of a loan

Once a Running Account Credit Agreement (RACA) has been terminated under the Consumer Credit Act 1974, it cannot be reinstated. This is a stipulation of the Act.

As we will have debited your bordereau with the amount outstanding on cancellation, you should apply the refunds against the relevant debit in your own records.

P19

Telesign.

Using our Telesign service

Telesign is a paperless process that lets you set up a loan and direct debit mandate without the need for documentation or a signature at the point of sale. It's a service that is particularly suited to internet or telephone selling, as there's no delay waiting for paperwork before the loan is set up. It's becoming increasingly popular in the personal lines market.

Telesign is a fully FSA compliant process, as long as the correct scripts are used.

Once the loan is on our system, we send a pre-completed agreement and mandate to your customer with their pre-contract information, for them to sign and send back to us.

To use our Telesign service, you must first send a copy of the Telesign letter. We can email you a draft of it – please contact 0870 241 3418 (UK), 1890 928 281 (Ireland).

Credit Agreement Features

[As well as paying the minimum monthly payments, you have to pay a facility fee of £_____ each time a drawing is made.] [You will have to pay £_____ each time the minimum monthly payment changes due to an alteration in any policy of insurance where the premiums have been financed under the credit agreement.] In certain circumstances, you may also have to pay administrative fees and Close Premium Finance will advise you as and when they arise. These costs, together with the APR, are illustrated in the credit agreement and also in the Standard European Consumer Credit Information (SECCI) sheet that will be sent to you, both of which are included within the Welcome Pack.

It is very important that you read the Standard European Consumer Credit Information (SECCI) sheet and welcome letter included within the Welcome Pack and take time to consider all the information carefully. The Welcome Pack contains details of the cost of your credit agreement, the minimum monthly payments that you will need to make and the dates on which these will be due. This information is aimed at enabling you to make an informed decision about whether or not this is the right product for you.

A charge over the insurance policy forms the security for the credit agreement so your insurance policy is at risk of cancellation if you fail to meet your repayment obligations. Where the credit agreement is cancelled in such circumstances, Close Premium Finance has the right to receive refunds paid under the policy. Any such amount Close Premium Finance receives will be used to reduce the amount you owe to Close Premium Finance. Client leaflet.

What is premium finance?

Premium finance is the easy way to pay for insurance. It's a loan that allows you to spread the payment for your premium over a period of time.

That's where Close Premium Finance comes in. Through your broker or insurer, we lend you the money for your premium at a competitive rate of interest. You then repay the loan through an instalment plan that allows you to manage your cashflow more easily.

Close Premium Finance lends from as little as £100 to sums in the millions. We lend to individuals on personal policies as well as companies with large multiple policies to fund. Our service and products are flexible enough to help you with any kind of policy and any method you wish to use for repayments.

When it comes to premium finance, no-one else is Close.

Who are Close?
Close Premium Finance is part of the Close Brothers Group, the largest independent, quoted merchant banking group in the UK.

Founded in the City of London in 1878, the Close Brothers Group now employs over 2,200 people and has total assets of £4bn.

Close Premium Finance introduced the concept of premium finance to the UK in 1977 and currently funds over £2bn of insurance premiums every year.

Award-winning service
However, size isn't everything. We also lead the premium finance industry in product innovation and service. No wonder brokers voted us 'Best Premium Finance Provider', 8 times in the last 12 years.

However, we are determined not to rest on our laurels and we always aim to give you the highest possible standard of service.

Who do we provide finance for?
There are two principal types of premium finance: personal and commercial lines.

Close Premium Finance offers a full range of products for both markets.

Commercial Lines
Close Premium Finance is the largest provider of premium finance in the commercial lines market. There is no maximum loan limit and funding can be arranged on an individual basis as well as 'off-the-shelf'.

Personal Lines
This facility arranges loans for personal insurance policies. Brokers have access to our personal lines facility round-the-clock and to our highly competitive rates of interest.

What are the benefits of using Close Premium Finance?
We work closely with your broker to help you manage your premium payments. We use a cutting edge technology called i-prompt to help brokers deal with your questions as swiftly and efficiently as possible.

Is there much paperwork?
Because your broker can access our service online, paperwork is kept to a minimum.

How flexible is the system?
If you want to change your repayment date or add another policy to your premium it can be dealt with electronically, with one call. If you're a personal lines customer and you want to change your address, or the date on which we take your direct debit, for example, we can easily alter your payment plan to suit you.

How do I renew?
We will invite you to renew through your broker, well in advance of your renewal date. You will not be required to sign any further documentation.

Am I tied to any insurance company?
Close Premium Finance is independent so your broker is free to recommend the best policies. We simply forward the funds for your premium to your broker who then forwards it to the insurance company you've chosen.

How do I pay?
All monthly instalments are paid by direct debit. If a deposit is required, your broker will discuss payment with you. A number of options may be available.

Want to know more?
We hope this answers some of your questions about who we are and what we do.
